If you are from the European Union and want to expand on your knowledge of European Law, the Law Faculty of Würzburg is inviting you to take part in its dedicated Winter School.

The English lectures and workshops will include:

- European and German political system
- Recent developments in European law
- European intellectual property law
- European private international law
- European data protection law
- European procurement law
- European company law
- European criminal law

10 participants will be granted scholarships of 150 Euro each.

Applications are accepted until 10th September 2019. Please visit:

www.jura.uni-wuerzburg.de/winterschool