DIS Autumn Conference 2025, 9 September 2025 Arbitration – A Bridge over Troubled Waters

In times of political fracture, judicial defiance, and legal uncertainty, international arbitration is called upon not only to resolve disputes, but to preserve the very idea of legal order. The DIS Autumn Conference 2025 – Arbitration: A Bridge over Troubled Waters – explores the evolving role of arbitration in upholding the rule of law amid crisis and contestation.

Join us for a day of critical reflection, practical insight and candid debate – featuring voices from across the international legal community.
