

Auswahl von den Werken
(Rivera López) und Referenten
Stand: 26.01.26

Sprache der Tagung: Englisch

1. Ethik der Notwehr

Referentin:

Susanne Burri (Universität Zürich)
E-Mail: susanne.burri@gmail.com

Texte:

- “Self-Defense Against Conditional Threats” (with Luciano Venezia), Journal of Ethics, Vol. 25, Issue 3, 2006 (377–386).
- “Puzzles on Defending Others from Aggression”, Law and Philosophy, Vol. 29, Issue 1, 2025 (63–83).

2. Sterbehilfe

Referent:

Eric Hilgendorf (Universität Würzburg)
E-Mail: eric.hilgendorf@uni-wuerzburg.de

Texte:

- “Euthanasia, consensual homicide, and refusal of treatment”, Bioethics, Vol. 38, Issue 4, 2024 (292–299).
- “Is Medically Assisted Death a Special Obligation?”, Journal of Medical Ethics, Vol. 43, Issue 6, 2017 (401–406).

3. Liberalismus

Referent:

Michael Baurmann (Universität Düsseldorf)
E-Mail: baurmann@hhu.de

Text:

- Die moralischen Voraussetzungen des Liberalismus. Freiburg i.Br.: Karl Alber Verlag, 1995 (Alber-Reihe: “Rechts- und Sozialwissenschaft”).

4. Moralische Verantwortung und Zufall

Referent:

Leandro Dias (Universität Würzburg)
E-Mail: leandroalberto.diasleston@uni-wuerzburg.de

Texte:

- “How to Reject Resultant Moral Luck Alone”, Journal of Value Inquiry, Vol. 50, Issue 2, 2016 (415–423).
- “The Fragility of our Moral Standing to Blame,” Ethical Perspectives, Vol. 24, Issue 3, 2017 (333–361).
- “Can there be Full Excuses for Morally Wrong Actions?”, Philosophy and Phenomenological Research, Vol. 73, Issue 1, 2006 (124–142).

5. Kriegsethik

Referentin:

Lisa Hecht (Universität Bern)

Texte:

- “Mutually Unjust Wars”, Criminal Law and Philosophy, 2025. DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1007/s11572-025-09768-5>
- “The Limited (but Relevant) Role of the Doctrine of the Double Effect in the Just War Theory”, Ethics & Global Politics, Vol. 10, Issue 1, 2017 (117–139).

6. Anwaltliche Berufsethik

Referentin:

Anna Richter (Universität Córdoba)

E-Mail: anna.e.m.richter@gmail.com

Text:

- “Is it Morally Wrong to Defend Unjust Causes as a Lawyer?,” Journal of Applied Philosophy, Vol. 32, Issue 2, 2015 (177-189).

7. The Non-Identity Problem

Referent:

Santiago Truccone (Universität Graz)

Text:

- “Individual Procreative Responsibility and the Non-Identity Problem”, Pacific Philosophical Quarterly, Vol. 90, Issue 3, 2009 (336–363).

8. Global Poverty

Referentin:

Ruth Zimmerling (Universität Mainz)

E-Mail: zimmerling@politik.uni-mainz.de

Text:

- “Theories on Global Poverty”, in: Demokratie und Entscheidung. Wiesbaden: Springer, 2018 (193–213).

9. Konsequentialismus und Welfarismus

Referent:

Tweedy Flanagan (Universität München)

Texte:

- “The Moral Murderer. A (more) Effective Counterexample to Consequentialism”, Ratio. An International Journal of Analytic Philosophy, Vol. 25, Issue 3, 2012 (307–325).
- “Are Mental State Welfarism and our Concern for Non-Experiential Goals Incompatible?”, Pacific Philosophical Quarterly, Vol. 88, Issue 1, 2007 (74–91).

10. Triage in der Pandemie

Referentin:

Lucila Tuñón (Universität Würzburg)

E-Mail: maria.tunon_corti@uni-wuerzburg.de

Texte:

- “Propuesta para la elaboración de un protocolo de triaje en el contexto de la pandemia de COVID-19” (con Federico Abal et al.), Revista de Bioética y Derecho, Issue 50, 2020 (37–61).
- “Rationing Health Care and the Role of the ‘Acute Principle’”, en Michael Baurmann, Bernd Lahno, Perspectives in Moral Science. Contributions from Philosophy, Economics, and Politics in Honour of Hartmut Kliemt, Frankfurt: Frankfurt School Verlag, 2009 (431–439).