

The Political Economy of Waste and the Role of Law Therein

with a Special Focus on EU Law

Seminar Sommersemester 2018

27.06. – 29.06.2018

V. Kalyan Shankar und Isabel Feichtner

This seminar addresses the political economy of waste and the role of law therein. It is co-taught by Professor Kalyan Shankar Vudayagiri, development economist, visiting from Symbiosis School of Economics, Pune (India) and Professor Isabel Feichtner from the Law Faculty at Würzburg University.

The seminar addresses, first, local political economies of waste with a focus on the informal waste sector in India, including waste pickers' battle for a "right to waste" and the effects of demonetization on their work. Second, the seminar focusses on global political economies of waste, on the (international and European) legal frameworks for trade in waste, investments in waste as well as resource efficiency.

The seminar language is English and readings will be in English as well. A preparatory meeting will be held on 5 June 2018, 3 pm, R. 230, Alte Uni.

Es können Scheine erworben werden für das Begleitstudium Europäisches Recht und das Aufbaustudium LL.M. Eur. sowie für Erasmus Studierende und das Nebenfach im Öffentlichen Recht. Die Seminararbeiten können in deutscher Sprache verfasst werden.
